

The City of Las Animas is requesting bids for a water line installation project. The proposed line will connect two sections of the city system together. The line will run south for the Bent County Jail and connect with a 6" line that runs north on Moore Avenue from First Street to current ballfields. It will be 6 inch in size and be approximately 2500 feet in length.

The City also would like two fire hydrants to be installed in the line.

Further information can be attained from Roy Davis, acting public works director or Cheryl Miller.
